

WINE LIST

It is with great pleasure that we present our wine portfolio, which has evolved since back in my Father's Day. We have remained faithful to our best-selling wines from producers who have been very loyal to us over the past 30 years.

Quite naturally, we have a large selection of Spanish wines and we are pleased to offer to you, at a very special price, El Vínculo Casa Martinez 2013, made for us in La Mancha by Alejandro Fernandez, the legendary producer of Pesquera.

Please take some time to browse through our Sommelier Selection, with its wide range of Fine and Rare wines from my Father's cellar, where, over the years he built up a notable collection of wines from the greatest properties in Bordeaux.

Sr. Martinez was a partner in Fine Wines Direct and through them a long lasting relationship with the owners of Bodegas Marqués de Cáceres who were regular visitors to Le Monde at the time of the rugby internationals, particularly Enrique Forner, who became a French supporter after his time in exile in that country, whilst Franco was in power. Please sample the companies Excellens range of wines, specifically designed for the restaurant trade.

For Burgundy lovers we particularly recommend the wines from the Mazilly family, based in the Hautes-Côtes de Beaune village of Meloisey.

For those who like New World wines, look no further than the New Zealand wines of Allan Scott, from his vineyards in both Marlborough and Central Otago.

For large parties we propose Magnum or Double-Magnum from our broad range of larger size bottles or for the more abstemious, sample something from our assortment of wines we sell by the glass, be it Champagne, New World or a classic.

MAISON MAZILLY SELECTION

Over the years the Mazilly Domaine of 18 (something over forty acres) has been created from vines inherited by the family and plots judiciously purchased over the years. Established by Pierre Mazilly, it is now in the hands of his son Frédéric and grand-son Aymeric. It is based in the Hautes-Côtes village of Meloisey, but also has ageing cellars in Meursault.

As well as its vineyards on the Hautes-Côtes, it also has holdings in such well-known villages as Beaune, Meursault, Volnay, Pommard, Savigny Monthelie and Gevrey Chambertin. Recently Aymeric has sought to extend the range of wines that they offer by buying grapes at vintage time from growers in other villages, which he then vinifies and ages in the Meursault Cellars.

A MARTINEZ SELECTION OF FINE WINES FROM AROUND THE WORLD.

The 1855 classification was requested by Emperor Napoleon III to be showcased at the ‘Exposition Universelle de Paris’ which took place in 1855. The process was done by the Bordeaux Chamber of commerce. The classification established using the reputation of the wines and the past trading prices. The classification only included red wines from the Medoc, sweet wines from Sauternes and Barsac and a Graves red wine.

GRUPO PESQUERA

PESQUERA SELECTION

The four Bodegas that compromise Alejandro Fernandez's wine legacy and constitute Grupo Pesquera share a passion for winemaking that has been perfected over time. Numerous awards endorse their wines; awards reaped throughout more than 40 years of experience in winemaking, such as Alejandro Fernandez being recognised as one of the best 20 winemakers in the world by the prestigious Fine magazine. It is without a doubt, a dream come true for Alejandro Fernandez whose maxim was always to own a bodega and make fine wines.

Today it could be said that reality has surpassed the dream and that Alejandro, his family, his bodegas and his wines have earned worldwide recognition and appreciation.

BODEGAS MARQUES DE CACERES

SELECTION MARQUES DE CACERES WINES

In 1970, Enrique Forner founded Marqués de Cáceres, Unión Vitivinícola, S.A., a historic Alliance between a region (Cenicero, La Rioja Alta), an enterprising family that has been devoted to the wine trade for five generations, the best vine growers and vineyards in La Rioja and a Bordeaux concept which revolutionised the production and business model with a single objective: the quality to obtain the best wines, an obsession that today continues to be guided by Cristina Forner, the fourth generation of this distinguished wine family.

ALLAN SCOTT SELECTION

Allan Scott is one of the iconic figures in the short history of the wine trade in Marlborough. As a viticulturalist, he was deeply involved in the first plantings of vineyards there for the two leading companies of the time, Corbans and Montana. In 1990, he launched his own venture, using grapes from his own vineyards on the prestigious Jacksons Road, opposite those of Cloudy Bay. They are a Kiwi family operated business who are passionate about their products to ensure you have a memorable experience with each wine, whatever your taste. The Scott name is on the bottle, so the family stands behind everything they make.

He produces a selection of aromatic varieties to complement his already sought-after Sauvignon Blanc and Pinot Noir. More recently he established the Scott Base winery in Central Otago. A true family affair, Allan still runs the company alongside Catherine, his wife and their children. In the 2011 Air New Zealand Wine Awards the Hounds Pinot Noir received a Gold medal, and Allan was rewarded for his wine industry by being given the order of merit for his services to the New Zealand wine trade. Yet still he pioneers onwards – such is his passion for wine

LAURENT PERRIER SELECTION

Founded over 200 years ago in 1812, Laurent-Perrier is one of the most distinguished, family owned Champagne Houses. Based right in the heart of the Champagne region in Tours-sur-Marne, Laurent-Perrier has a pedigree for innovation, handcrafting elegant champagnes using traditional, time-honoured methods.

The House was acquired by the Nonancourt family in 1949 and for 50 years Bernard de Nonancourt dedicated his life to innovating and perfecting Laurent-Perrier champagne. Today, with Bernard's daughters Alexandra and Stéphanie on the Management Board, the House of Laurent-Perrier is one of the great success stories in Champagne and is the largest independent champagne brand worldwide.

As a recognition of quality and environmental responsibility, Laurent-Perrier was awarded the Royal Warrant of HRH The Prince of Wales in 1998 and has proudly carried it ever since. Laurent-Perrier is the only champagne house to bear his Warrant.

TAYLOR'S PORT

This company was first established in Oporto by Job Bearsley in 1692 and is the leading owner of premium vineyards in the Douro Valley. Whilst it produces a full range of wines it is particularly known for its vintage port. As the Oxford Companion to Wine says, "Taylor's vintage port is consistently one of the most admired and longest lived of the year."

As well as fine wines the Martinez family always had a strong interest in ports and have managed to accumulate a fantastic collection of mature vintage port from the Taylors winery. Taylors was established in 1692 and is one of the oldest port houses. Taylors is also regarded as the benchmark for vintage ports. Noted for their elegance and poise as well as for their restrained power and longevity, Taylor's Vintage Ports are blended from the finest wines of the house own quintas or estates, Vargellas, Terra Feita and Junco. These three iconic properties, each occupying a distinct geographic location and with their own unique character, are the cornerstone of the company's success and the main source of its unique and inimitable house style.
